Senate Bill S09-03

Renaming CHSS Auditorium C070 "The Dr. John W. Holcombe Auditorium"

- Author: Bearkat Democrats' Vice-President Kendall Scudder
- Sponsors: Bearkat Democrats' Secretary Emily Rice
SGA President Chris Yancy
- Whereas: Dr. John W. Holcombe faithfully served Sam Houston State University and the Sam Houston State University College of Humanities and Social Sciences for forty-two years; and
- Whereas: Naming an auditorium after such an honorable man would promote Dr. Holcombe's incredible character and infamous sense of humor amongst the students of Sam Houston State University; and
- Whereas: The only inconvenience in this process would be the cost of a name plate; minimal to the service given by Dr. John W. Holcombe; therefore
- Be it resolved: That the Student Government Association represent the student body in asking for the dedication of the Auditorium C070 in the CHSS building in honor of Dr. John W. Holcombe by giving this auditorium the name "The Dr. John W. Holcombe Auditorium"; and
- Be it further Resolved: That the Student Government Association, in the interest of honoring a great scholar in this University's history, request that:
- The Auditorium C070 in the new College of Humanities and Social Sciences Building become renamed to honor the former Chair of the Political Science Department, Dr. John W. Holcombe.
- That this action be taken immediately in order to acquire this namesake before the dedication of this building on March 20th, 2009.

Be if finally Resolved:

That copies of this bill be sent to the, President James F. Gaertner, Dean of Students, John Yarabeck, Vice President for Student Services, Frank Parker, Vice President of University Advancement, Frank Holmes, The Huntsville Item, and the Houstonian.

Signed,

Chris Yancy,
President

Jenny Swenson,
Secretary
